

I am opposed to the pending legislation that would allow a company to control more of the media in a geographic area. We are already losing our right to know all sides of the critical issues about which citizens need to be informed. I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.